The identified committee members are advised to report for duty on February 16, 2018 until February 21, 2018 at the designated press room at the Old Regional Office, Alunan Avenue, Koronadal City.

Student-writers from Tupi National High School, South Cotabato and Koronadal National Comprehensive High School, Koronadal City have likewise been identified to be in the committee. Their respective school heads are advised to ensure that they are properly excused from their classes and will be provided intervention for the sessions they would miss.

Food provision for the committee shall be shouldered by the SRAA regional funds while their accommodation shall be in their respective delegation billeting quarters; hence, concerned division delegations are requested to include the committee members in their billeting arrangements.

Furthermore, transportation and other expenses of the committee members in going to and from the SRAA venue can be charged against available local funds subject to accounting and auditing rules and regulations.

Immediate dissemination of this Memorandum is desired.
